

Original 26-Q Review Test Topic/s: Shakespeare's Time, Life, and Theatre

Imagine that you are the teacher and need to create an original test that will cover all the notes we've studied on the topic/s listed above. Using your notes, create a 26-Question Original test that will cover every major topic we covered in class, from political and religious upheaval to Shakespeare's Folio. You will also create a SEPARATE answer key for your test. This assignment is a QUIZ grade and a great review opportunity!

Test Criteria:

- Use a variety of question types--
 - Multiple choice
 - Matching
 - Fill in the blanks
 - True/False (no more than 5)
 - Short answer

Question #26 is the essay question and will read: In a well-developed essay, explain how we know that Shakespeare's audiences had a great deal more invested into their theater experiences than audiences of contemporary theater have. Discuss the extent of audience interaction during Shakespeare's time, and provide evidence to support your points.

On your separate answer sheet, bullet the main points you expect to see.

- Cover all levels of learning from identification to application to analysis to synthesis.
- Include a separate answer key. Be sure to answer all of your test questions!
- Submit typed (preferred) or neatly written in blue or black ink pen.

Original 26-Q Review Test Topic/s: Shakespeare's Time, Life, and Theatre

Imagine that you are the teacher and need to create an original test that will cover all the notes we've studied on the topic/s listed above. Using your notes, create a 26-Question Original test that will cover every major topic we covered in class, from political and religious upheaval to Shakespeare's Folio. You will also create a SEPARATE answer key for your test. This assignment is a QUIZ grade and a great review opportunity!

Test Criteria:

- Use a variety of question types--
 - Multiple choice
 - Matching
 - Fill in the blanks
 - True/False (no more than 5)
 - Short answer

Question #26 is the essay question and will read: In a well-developed essay, explain how we know that Shakespeare's audiences had a great deal more invested into their theater experiences than audiences of contemporary theater have. Discuss the extent of audience interaction during Shakespeare's time, and provide evidence to support your points.

On your separate answer sheet, bullet the main points you expect to see.

- Cover all levels of learning from identification to application to analysis to synthesis.
- Include a separate answer key. Be sure to answer all of your test questions!
- Submit typed (preferred) or neatly written in blue or black ink pen.