

Topic Outlining for Literary Analyses of Plays by Shakespeare

1. Create a specific heading/caption (slug) for each passage you will quote/use in your paper to support each point. Your slug should nutshell the significance of the passage. Your explanation from your motif chart is a good place to start.

Example

Quoted passage: "I am in blood / Stepped in so far that, should I wade no more, / Returning were as tedious as go o'er."

Slug: River of blood

2. Use that heading in your outline for the specific supporting detail, followed by the parenthetical documentation.

In the outline:

a. River of blood (3.4.136-8)

Another outline detail example:

b. Milk as weakness (1.5.15-16)

Topic Outlining for Literary Analyses of Plays by Shakespeare

1. Create a specific heading/caption (slug) for each passage you will quote/use in your paper to support each point. Your slug should nutshell the significance of the passage. Your explanation from your motif chart is a good place to start.

Example

Quoted passage: "I am in blood / Stepped in so far that, should I wade no more, / Returning were as tedious as go o'er."

Slug: River of blood

2. Use that heading in your outline for the specific supporting detail, followed by the parenthetical documentation.

In the outline:

a. River of blood (3.4.136-8)

Another outline detail example:

b. Milk as weakness (1.5.15-16)