

Vocabulary 54 Review

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____
13. _____
14. _____
15. _____

- A. The _____ (adj.) marriage took place between two people within the same tribe.
- B. Because the innocent victims of the bomb were standing beside the intended targets, they were considered “_____ damage.”
- C. I always give my students a/an _____ speech, urging them to study hard and to do their best in all things.
- D. The _____ (adj.) servant had a written contract to work for seven years for the man who paid his passage to America.
- E. The insurance company gave the owner of the totaled car a/an _____ settlement—they did not pay her what it would cost to replace her car with a new one but the proportion that it was worth when it was totaled.
- F. Because he was so _____, my dog aced obedience training school!
- G. It is a true fact that the phrase “free gift” is a/an _____.
- H. Macbeth is one of Shakespeare’s most _____ plays, full of all kinds of blood and gore.
- I. Please help us to understand that concept better by _____ (-ing) it; shine the light on it.
- J. _____ is a good marriage practice to have in order to vary the gene pool of any tribe of people.
- K. Because the student had little internal motivation to excel, she relied on grades as a/an _____ motivator.
- L. After leaving computers on in the cage for two months, the _____ chimpanzees created an algorithm to speed up the dropping of bananas from their automatic feeder.
- M. “Dr. Seuss” is the _____ for author Theodore Geisel—it’s not his real name.
- N. The starving child’s stomach was stretched full of air, _____ (-ing) from malnutrition.
- O. The opposing sides were so full of impractical, uncompromising _____ (s) that they were not able to compromise on any of the issues.